

Writing assignment after Karl Broman visit

Your assignment for October 16 is to take two bits of wisdom that Karl Broman shared with you during his conversation and reflect in writing (about a half page total) on what new you learned about statistical consulting and how you expect you might use this newly shared wisdom in the future.